THE Times, in a leading stricle on the second report of the Royal Commission appointed to inquire into the depression of trade and industry, says:- "As regards bimetallism, no one whose views are reported in this volume appears to have given evidence in favour of it, except a Mr. Albert Simpson, of Preston, whose mind seems to be a happy hanting-ground for economic errors. Of the score or more of Chambers of Commerce and similar bodies whose replies to the circular issued by the Commission are printed in the appendix to the minutes of evidence, the great majority take no notice whatever of that section of the form sent out to be filled up by them which relates to currency matters. Sheffield, it is true, complains of the fall in the value of silver as affecting the trade of the town, but has no suggestion to offer. Amid all this shocking indifference to a matter which some people allege to be the hurning trade question of the day, the Metal Trade Section of the London Chamber of Commerce alone expresses a strong desire to have the fall in the price of silver discussed seriously as a cause of the depression of trade. When it is remembered that the chairman of this section is Mr. H. R. GEEN-FELL, the quite exceptional favour of its It appears likely that the agitation for bi metallism as a remedy for trade depression. which has lately been galvanized into some degree of activity in company with other. delusions, will not survive the exposure of the indifference with which the wild assertions of its authors are received by practical men." We have not had an opportunity of seeing the report itself, and are therefore not in a position to judge how far the Times' description of Mr. Pageston's mind as a " happy bunting ground for economic errors " the Times, however, that the indifference to a matter so vitally affecting trade is " shock. ing," and we may add that the flippancy with which the Times treats the subject may be described by the same term. The Min loro, the second of the three steel guaboats ordered from the Hongkong and Whampon Dock Company by the Manila Government, was successfully launched from the ing; the naming of the vessel being performed by Miss Polly Boyd, daughter of the Superintendent Engineer at Kowloon Dock, who most gracefully broke the customary bottle of champagne across the vessel's bows as she left the ways. This vessel is similar to the Manilena, which was completed in October last; but from the experience gained in the construction the latter, many improvements have been introduced in the new boat. The Mindoro is built on finer lines, which will give her an increased rate of speed and also materially improve her appearance. Another improvement is that she is fitted with a raised quarter deck, which provides more spacious and better ventilated cabin accommodation. The principal dimensions are :- Length between perpendioulars, 100 feet; extreme breadth, 16 feet inches; depth moulded 7 feet 8 inches. The vessel is fitted with twin screws driven by two pairs of diagonal surface condensing engines working independently, steam being supplied ing pressure of 100 lbs. per square inch. The contracted speed is 11 knots as hour, but it is anticipated that with the vessel's improved boat now in course of construction, the Marineles. will be ready for launching about a month hence.

The thirty-second ordinary general meeting of the shareholders was held at the City Terminus Hotel, Cannon street, on the 21st April; Mr. William Paterson in the chair. Mr. WILLIAM CHARLES MULLINS (the seoretary) read the notice convening the meeting. The report and accounts were taken as read.

The CHAIRMAN said :- Gentlemen, I suppose you will take the report as read, and I have no doubt that you look upon the accompanying accounts as favourable I think you will agree with me that I am ne very far from the mark in saying that the past year has been one of trouble and loss to all connected with shipping and commerce. In fact, whether we follow the exports to or imports from our sphere of operations. I believe as a rule the results have been very much as I have mentioned. The year has been one of considerable anxiety to us all here, and to our executive abroad, and it has decrease in imports was Rs. 1,34,16,848. In the been a daily puzzle how to make profits with any degree of certainty. Silver has continued to be one of our chief troubles, and, as you are aware, has rather affected us as regards our profits; but fortunately we have been enabled to provide for the depreciation in the value of silver out of our earnings. You are well aware that we have 406,346 tons, and 14,705 sailing vessels carrying been for years providing for this, and I think that we may congratulate ourselves now in having got rid of that bugbear, although at cost, from first to last, of considerably 307.075 tons, as against 434 steamers, carrying peared in our reserve fund or been added to our dividends. We dispose of this incubus by charging £25,355 to the debit of the profit and loss account for the year. Consequently, we have our capital new placed upon a gold basis, plus £200,000 in reserve, and it will be our policy, as far as the requirements of our business will permit, to keep as closely to the gold standard as possible while there continues such uncertainty with regard to the outcome of the proceedings highest medical authorities in India, writes as in the American Congress and elsewhere as to Mr. Baptists was called, and he supported silver coinage. the Chinese take their opinm pipe preparato to endeavouring to overreach their friends in From the accounts relating to the trade and a bargain, while a British concludes his business with the festive oun: for the Chinaman knows the opium will brighten his intellect, while the Britisher knows the alcohol will dull his faculties. But although opium in moderation brightens the intellect, it also soothes and composes the system. An opium smoker never debases himself by quarrelling with his friend; he does not become in turns jovial, sentimental, maudling, garrelsome, and then dead drink; he does not go out and break lamps or jump on his wife like the falling off in merchandise. The value of the votary of alcohol; he does not appear vext ment is infinitely less.

The opium consumer is sensationally said to be betrayed "by his emaciated appearance, lank and shrivelled limbs, tottering gait, sallow visage, feeble voice, and general imbecility" : all this is true only with regard to the excessive use of the drug. The great majority of those taking opium are hale, hearty, powerful, and with intellects undulled. Many of the natives of India believe that the use of opium in advanced age is favourable to lougevity. Sometime ago I intraduced the subject before the "Bombay Wedical and Physical Society." The members of the society are European and native medical practitioners. and no body of men on the face of the earth are better qualified to give an opinion on the subject. and their recorded opinion was that "the habitual use of opinm in moderation is not injurious."

In the meantime it must be confessed that there is wonderful amount of nonsense talked on the subject, and that the International Monetary Association give a good deal of chaff along with the wheat they offer for the intellectual communition of the mercantile world. At the annual meeting of the Association one gentleman declared that in consequence of the fall-in silver 900,000,000 of the population of the world had been impoverished to the extent of twentyfive per cent., which is quite inaccurate; for the great majority of the population of the silver using countries have remained absolute. ly unaffected by the currency question. If, however, it can be shown that the fall in silver has brought to India the prosperity it is claimed to have done, that prosperity must rest on a very unstable basis so long as it is dependent on an uncertain exchange. The directors of the Philadelphia Female Normal Schools have decided to substitute the. WINES, &c., by MESSES, CALDBECK study of cookery for that of mythology in the carriculum of their institutions.

Persons who have a superstitions dread Friday will not be pleased to hear that this is a thoroughly Friday year. It came in on'a Friday, will go out on a Friday, and will have 53 Fridays. There are four months in the year that will have five Fridays each; changes of the moon occur to Sign our Firm. five times on a Friday, and the longest and shortest days are Fridays.

Society is again commencing to talk of a bride for Prince Albert Victor. The young lady, whose charms and talents seem to fit her for the position, is the Princess Victoria of Teck. daughter of our own Princess Mary Adelaide. The Princess Clementine of Bulgium, about whom we know nothing, is also spoken of as a likely bride for our Prince, if she is educated in the Protestant faith.

A. Yankee fisherman tells an expansive story of his experience with a stargeon he hooked in the Pocomoke. He called upon a friend to assist him in getting the fish into the boat, but the friend being afraid of it left him to manage as bast he could. Bring afraid of losing his prize he sprang upon the back of the fish, caught it by the gills to keep its head out of water, and with kicks and yells rode it ashore.

Twelve men in Bridgeport are about to invest ALIFORNIAN FLOUE. capital to have the experiment of breeding quails tried. Their chief object will be to provide means of sport at any time in the year on their own ground without infringing any known State game law. The club have leased for a term of years 1,500 acres a few miles north of this city. and have already liberated 200 birds there, and expect to liberate 200 more. These quail come from Pennsylvania, and are very lively birds. Grain will be sown and corn planted, the understanding being that the quail are to have full range and be undisturbed by anybody save members of the club.

An enthusiastic Liberal grocer in Birmingham had the otherday printed in large letters on a board placed over his shop door the following words- Mr. Gladstone says, Jam is the best substitute for butter.' Try our home-made jam." A woman entered his shop, bought two pots of "our home-made," and carried them off In a few days she returned, laid one pot of the iam on the counter, and with an indignant air exclaimed. "I've been brought up to believe that every word Mr. Gladstone spoke was truth. I'llnever balieve him again."-" Indeed, madainwhy not?" inquired the bawildered grocer --"Why?" repeated the indignant matron. "Because he said jam was the best substitute for butter. It is not. It won't fry my fish!"

GREAT EXCITEMENT IN ALES ABOUT A MARVELLOUS CURE. LIVING BIX YEARS WITHOUT GOING TO BED.

Mr. EDITOR, -While spending a few days at the pleasant seaside town of Abarystwith, Cardiganshire, Wales, I heard related what seemed to me either a fabulous story or a marvellous cure. The story was that a poor sufferer who had not been able to lie down in bed for six long years, given up to die by all the Doctors, had been spendily oured by some Patent Medicine. It was related with the more implicit confidence from the circumstance, as was said, that the Vicar of Lianrystyd was familiar with the facts, and could vouch for the truth of the report. Having a little curiosity to know how such stories grow in travelling, I took the liberty while at the village of Llangstyd to call upon the Vicar, the Rev. T. Evans, and to enquire about this wonderful curs. Though a total stranger to him, both he and his wife most graciously entertained me in a half hour's conversation, principally touching the case of Mr. Puch, in which they seemed to take a deep and sympathetic interest having been familiar with his sufferings, and now rejoiced in what seemed to them a most remarkable cure. The Vicas

remarked that he presumed his name had been connected with the report from his having mentioned the case to Mr. John Thomas, a chemist of Lianon. He said Mr. Pugh was formerly a resident of their parish, but was now living in Schuedum Schnapps, Pomeranzen Bitters. the parish of Llanddeinel. He strongly vonched Mr. Wm. Pugh's Cabback in Jare. character as a respectable farmer and worthy of credit. I left the venerable Vicar with a livelier sense of the happy relation of a pastor and people, feeling that he was one who truly sympathised with all who are afflicted in mind, body, or estate. On my return to Aberystwith, I was impressed with a desire to see Mr. Pugh, whose reputation stood so high. His farm is called Pancom-Mawr, signifying "above the dingle," situated near the summit of a smooth round hill, overlooking a beautiful valley in which is situated the lovely ivymentled Church of Llanddeinol. I found Mr. Pagh, apparently about 40 years old, of medium height rather slight, with a pleasant and intelligent face. I told him I heard of his great affliction and of his remarkable and almost miraculous relief, and that I had come to learn from his own lips, what there was of truth in the

Mr. Pugh remarked that his neighbours had taken a kindly and sympathetic interest in his case for many years, but of late their interest had been greatly awakened by a happy change in his condition. What you report as having heard abroad, said he is substantially true, with one exception. I never understood that my case was ever given up as hopeless by any Physician. I have been treated by several Doctors hereabouts. as good as any in Wales, but unfortunately no prescription of theirs ever brought the desired

Early in this last spring I had a still more severe spasmodic attack, and my family and neighbours became alarmed, believing that certainly I would not survive, when a neighbour, who had some knowledge, or had heard of the medicine, sent to Aberystwith by the driver of the Omnibus Post, some seven miles distant, and fetched a bottle of Mother Seigel's Curative

This medicine they administered to me according to the directions, when to their surprise and delight no less than my own, the spasm ceased, I became at ease, and my stomach was calmed. My bowels were moved as by a gentle cathartic, and I felt a souse of quiet comfort all through such as I had not before realized in many years. I could walk around the house and breathe comfortably in a few hours after I had taken the medicine. I have continued to take the medicine daily now for something over two months, and I can lay down and sleep sweetly at nights and have not since had a recurrence of those terrible spasms and sweatings. I have been so long broken down and reduced in my whole system that I have not tried to perform any very hard out-door labour, deeming it best to be prudent lest by over-exertion I may do myself injury before my strength is fully restored. I feel that my stomach and bowels have been and are being cine. In fact I feel like a new man. Believing this remarkable case of Dyspeptic Asthma should be known to the public. I beg to submit the above facts as they are related to me. great Variety. Inspection is invited.

ROST-OFFICE NOTICES. When Correspondence has been rais-sent or delayed (both of which are liable to happen occasionally) all that the addresses need do is to note on the cover, Sent to _____, or Received at 7 p.m., or as the case may be, and forward it, without any other writing whatever, to the Postmaster-General. This should be acted on the first time cause of complaint occurs ; it is a mistake to let such matters pass for fear of giving trouble, a course which generally gives more trouble in the end.

LOCAL DELIVERY. - No delivery is attempted on board Ship, at the Peak, Kowloon, Aberdeen, &c., nor at any private house (even though named in the address) when there is a place of business nearer, at which delivery can be effected.

The Postal Guide for 1886, revised to date of the United States, via Overland Railways, to will be found in the Daily Press Directory, n. 385 large edition, p. 701 small edition. This in Mexico, Central and South America, by the is the only anthorised complete Summary of Postal information published in Hongkong.
